

New Summer Programs from Tri-State Community School for the Arts

Let your kids play this summer while maintaining vital educational skills such as writing and reading comprehension, improving fine motor and critical thinking skills, and learning, learning, learning!

Creative Kids Stories and Crafts $75

July 13-August 17 10:00 am – 12:00 pm (Wednesdays) ages 4-8

We'll be reading stories, doing related activities, and making crafts as each week a new theme will be explored. Students will have an opportunity to work with different types of crafting and will be encouraged to use their imagination.

Creative Kids Workshop $75

July 14-August 18 10:00 am – 12:00 pm (Thursdays) ages 9-12

Students will express their creativity using various mediums: hands on experience with clay, paint, paper, mosaic tiles, jewelry making and more.

Renaissance Youth $300 lunch provided

July 18-29 11:00 am – 4:00 pm

In the spirit of Renaissance Man Leonardo da Vinci, students will explore several different mediums during this two week long clinic. Singing, playing recorders, dancing, acting, creative writing, painting, and sculpting will be explored.
